

Here is a short list of relief and development agencies that I recommend

Oxfam America and Oxfam UK. International NGOs working in several of the affected countries. Oxfam UK has had a field office in eastern Sri Lanka for many years. You can contribute on-line at www.Oxfam.org.uk. If you wish a US tax deduction, contribute to Oxfam America at www.oxfamamerica.org.

Doctors Without Borders. International NGO working in Indonesia and may extend operations to other countries. You can contribute on-line at www.msf.org/

Sarvodaya. Sri Lankan NGO with a vast network in the affected communities. We have just set up an internet site for donations. Go to www.sarvodaya.org. Of all Sri Lankan organizations, I highly recommend Sarvodaya.

Mennonite Central Committee. US NGO working in Sri Lanka. You can contribute on-line at www.mcc.org/

WALHI – Indonesian Forum for the Environment. Go to <http://www.eng.walhi.or.id/> and follow the link to the Global Green Grants Fund site for US-based contributions.

American Friends Service Committee. Go to <http://afsc.org>

Other reputable organizations that generally meet the criteria include CARE and Catholic Relief Services.
