

"POLITICAL PARTICIPATION AND PEACE BUILDING"

Two Workshops with HON. BETTY ONGOM AMONGI Member of Parliament, Republic of Uganda

Hon. Betty Amongi is the chair of the Uganda Chapter of the AMANI Forum, an initiative of African Parliamentarians in the Great Lakes region who are committed to peace and to the peaceful resolution of conflicts, both within their own countries and in the region as a whole. She worked for women's rights in national and international organizations, advocated for youth and children, and promoted community development and poverty alleviation. She holds an MA degree in International Politics from University of South Africa, BA degree in Development Studies from Uganda Martyrs University and a BA degree in Political Science and Public Administration (Hon) from Makerere University.

March 16, Fri., 5:30pm- 8:30pm – “Political Participation”
March 17, Sat., 10am -1pm - “Conflict and Peace-Building”
Venue: Room G2, Schneider Building

All are Welcome to participate!

Brought to you by the Gender Working Group of The Heller School for Social Policy and Management and supported by the Sachar Fund
Brandeis University

For inquiries, please contact Judith Ayugi at ayugi@brandeis.edu

