IMPORTANT TRAVEL SITES and TIPS

Travel guides:

http://www.state.gov/travel

http://www.dummies.com/how-to/content/staying-safe-while-studying-abroad.html

Additionally, be sure to go and register at the Embassy once you arrive in country. They will be able to provide you with additional information about living in the country and what you should do in case of an emergency, lost passport, etc. Check out the State Department's site. For those who are U.S. Citizen's you should sign up for the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP).

Other:

1. Center for Disease Control
   http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel

   Be sure to check out this site prior to traveling to ensure that you receive the most up to date information on health and immunizations that are required. Give yourself ample time so that you can ensure you receive the proper shots before you leave.

2. Where to go for your immunization shot and other travel medicine:
   a. The Health Center on campus does provide travel advice and immunizations. You should make an appointment with one of the make an appointment with one of the physicians for a travel visit. http://www.brandeis.edu/studentaffairs/health/index.html
   b. Other locations as well as your doctor’s office will offer immunizations as well. Here are some other options to look into. Try to find a place that is cost effective as well.

Massachusetts General Hospital
http://www2.massgeneral.org/id/clinical_practice/travel_advice/

Passport Health (offices in Woburn, Cambridge, Framingham and Marlboro)
http://www.passporthealthusa.com/boston/

Travel Health Resource – travel clinics (Massachusetts)
http://www.travelhealthresource.com/clinics/MASSACHUSETTS.asp

Travel Medicine