

Seeking feedback from people with disabilities who have given birth in the last 5 years

Your feedback is important!

Feedback Session Overview:

The National Center for Disability and Pregnancy Research (NCDPR) is making a tool to help pregnant people with disabilities plan for the birth of their babies. During these sessions, we'll talk about ways to help people with disabilities during childbirth. Your feedback and ideas will help us develop the NCDPR tool.

Participation:

We're looking for people with disabilities who have been pregnant in the last 5 years. Participants will meet with us over Zoom to talk about what tools and accommodations are useful to pregnant people with disabilities.

Interested in Attending?

NCDPR will be offering four feedback sessions. Please register for the session that best fits your schedule:

- Session 1: October 3, 2022, 4 p.m. Eastern Time
- Session 2: October 3, 2022, 6 p.m. Eastern Time
- Session 3: October 11, 2022, 1 p.m. Eastern Time
- Session 4: October 13, 2022, 2 p.m. Eastern Time

Register using QR code:

You may also register at:
<https://heller.brandeis.edu/disability-and-pregnancy/research/feedback-sessions-childbirth-tool.html>

Feedback Sessions will be a one-hour via Zoom. Attendees will discuss accommodations and will aid in the development of this tool by offering feedback and insight.

National Center for Disability &
Pregnancy Research

Have questions or need an accommodation to participate in any of the virtual Feedback Sessions? Please contact Jennifer Lee-Rambharose at jllee@brandeis.edu.