Organizational Partners

Organizational partners are organizations seeking to realize significant performance advantages for themselves and/or their clients through the implementation of relational coordination and complementary approaches. The RCRC offers a special rate for associations that wish to offer RCRC partnership discounts to their affiliates.

Organizational partnership includes the benefits noted above plus 5 Individual Standard Partnerships to share to help expand the knowledge and use of relational coordination in the organization.

Brandeis University Students

Current Brandeis students may become Individual Standard partners at no cost and may extend their partnership for 6 months post graduation. Additionally, current Brandeis student partners may attend RC training programs at cost.
